The staff of the accommodation facility is authorized to confiscate the bicycle from the minor who create danger for others or drives it at a speed higher than the limit referred; the vehicle will be released only to the adult who is responsible for the minor.

24. Parking - The accommodation is serviced with special parking areas located in the areas designated per emplacement. It is strictly forbidden to block any escape route by any means, under penalty of forcible removal. If the obstruction is repeated for the third time by the same means, this will be confiscated and returned to the rightful owner at the end of the stay.

CHAPTER III - Emergency Management

25. In case of fire - Inside the campsite are special loudspeakers that in case of serious fire will give an alarm. In the event of fire customers will reach, in an orderly fashion, the points of "temporary meeting points" indicated by appropriate signs, then will wait at the emergency point for a team that will lead them to the campsite collection point.

26. If other emergencies - Health, severe natural events, situations such as public safety, inconveniences caused by the sea: contact the staff of the campsite if available, or see the information board at the entrance for all emergency telephone numbers.

TITLE IV - Liability

27. Customer responsibilities and/or guests - Customers and/or their guests are personally responsible to BCV and/or third parties for any damage to persons and/or property, direct and/or indirect, in any way caused as a result of behaviour taken as being in violation of the provisions of this contract and/or other regulations as applicable. It is understood that it is the right of BCV to claim additional damages if applicable. Each camper is required to keep strictly to their own property. The campsite assumes no responsibility for any items lost or stolen that are not left in its direct custody. The management assumes no liability for damage to cars, caravans, or other property caused by falling branches and/or pine cones. Responsibilities of the camping village - The campsite is not responsible for lost or stolen items or valuables, for damages to persons or property not due to direct negligence of staff of the camping village, for damages, failures and failures caused by bad weather or force majeure.

28. Resolution - The violation of Articles. 11 and 12 of this contract will mean the immediate cessation of the agreement, and will require both customers and their guests to leave the accommodation within 6 hours after receipt of notice of termination, as well as, by way of liquidated damages, to pay the consideration of 'entire stay'. This applies also to minors, with the right of the BCV to retention of the deposit until the satisfaction of credit, as well as to compensation for further damage. Any delay over 10 am on the day following the date or the failure to give notice, it will also immediately terminate, with BCV having right to compensation.

TITLE V - Final Provisions

29. Changes - Any changes to the provision of service that does not conflict with the provisions of this contract is to be made public by posting on the special notice boards located at the entrance of the campsite. Any variations or exemptions made for a single customer are done so in writing, which must then be produced upon the request of the campsite staff. This exemption does not constitute a relevant source of law for use by a third party.

30. Disputes - This contract is subject to Italian law and any interpretation relating to the above or that not anticipated in this document makes specific reference to this law and not to external uses and customs.

31. Assignment of contract - This contract, the rights and obligations arising therefrom will be automatically transferred, without any consent from the customer, due to mergers, acquisitions, disposals of business or business unit that only applies to BCV. The BCV does not accept the transfer to third parties of this contract by the customer.

32. Terms of closing - Possible tolerances by BCV, referring to customer conduct and/or their guests who are in violation of the provisions of this contract, does not constitute the right to waiver of any rights it has at its base in the clauses. In the event that any contractual provision turns out for whatever reason, as being non-compliant with mandatory provisions of law, it will be ineffective without affecting the validity of the remaining provisions. This Agreement constitutes the full manifestation of all agreements between the parties and exhausts the discipline of their rights and obligations for that which concerns the subject of the agreement. All prior agreements and contracts are now understood as revoked and annulled in effectiveness as have all prior written and oral agreements, between both parties, and from third parties, concerning this contract. Any changes to the terms and conditions of this contract shall be made in writing under penalty of nullity.
