

INTRODUCTION

"Customer" is the physical or juridical person who, as a guest, makes a contract for a holiday and/or a "buying and selling" contract concerning a holiday package.

"Baia Holiday" is the tour operator who manages the reservation and stipulates contracts for holidays in one of the Baia Silvestra Group resorts. "tourist accommodation" is the society who manages the Baia Silvestra Group resorts.

1. CONTRACT AND BOOKING

Reservations can be sent to our address by post, fax or e-mail or completed directly by the on line booking system in our web site. Reservations are exclusively accepted for groups from a minimum of 1 to a maximum of 6 persons. Reservations are personal and exclusively valid for the persons whose personal data are indicated in the booking contract.

On receiving the booking request, Baia Holiday will send the customer a "service quote/holiday package" which specifies: the chosen tourist accommodation, the accommodation unit and/or room or apartment, the arrival and departure dates, the exact amount of the whole stay, the deposit paying procedure (amount and expiration date) and the balance payment conditions. The quote must be fully verified, confirmed and signed by the customer, and returned by fax, mail or post.

By confirming the booking and/or by the payment of the deposit/balance, the booking contract is to be considered binding. Baia Holiday considers the booking as confirmed only after having received the full deposit and/or balance. The customer's requests about a pitch or a living unit special location will be considered mere preferences and will have no contractual value or absolute assurance, since pitches/living units will be allotted on site and at the Management sole discretion.

Special offers are subject to precise and particular terms and conditions, as shown in the specific sections of the price list. Prices for the ferry tickets are quoted by the shipping companies; consequently the price of a holiday package which includes a ferry ticket could be higher if, when confirming the booking, there were no more availability of the previously chosen fare class.

2. PAYMENT CONDITIONS

If the customer decides to make/confirm the booking, he must proceed to the payment of the deposit within the terms shown in the quote and according to the following procedure:

- payment of about the 25% of the total amount + booking fee, as shown in the quote, and balance within no later than 15 days before the date of arrival at the tourist accommodation.

Payments may be made by bank transfer, credit card (by virtual POS in our web site, e-commerce applications or Mo.To); In order to protect the credit card data during the whole procedure, Baia Holiday makes use of S.S.L. technology. Accepted credit cards: Visa, Mastercard and Maestro.

For reservations made in the 15 days preceding the arrival date, the full payment (100% of the total amount) must be done on the same day of the booking confirmation. By confirming the booking and/or by the payment of the deposit/balance, the booking contract is to be considered binding. Should the customer cancel the reservation, partially or in full, or decide to make changes, except for what provided at point 4, the entire remaining amount must be paid.

WARNING: non-observance of the terms of payment, as above mentioned, shall constitute a rescinding clause that would result in the legal termination of the contract by the intermediary agency and/or the organizer, except for the compensation for further damages suffered by the organization.

Any failure to comply with the terms of the payment, will result in the loss of the economic conditions and all the related benefits. Should the tourist accommodation notice a price difference due to a wrong communication during the booking procedure, the lacking amount must be paid by the customer on arrival, at the resort cash office. Payment conditions related to special offers, early booking etc. could be subject to specific payment terms and conditions different from those above mentioned.

3. SERVICE/HOLIDAY PACKAGE SUPPLYING
